

MATT MUNISTERI & BROCKMUMFORD

"THEIR MUSIC IS THEIR OWN, NEITHER JAZZ, NOR ROCK, NOR CABARET, BUT AT THE SAME TIME ALL OF THEM. I'VE NEVER HEARD ANYTHING LIKE IT... BANDS LIKE THIS ARE WHY YOU MOVE TO NEW YORK".

THE VILLAGE VOICE

"SOMETIMES FUNNY, SOMETIMES MELANCHOLY, BUT ALWAYS HIP... SOUNDS LIKE SOMETHING YOU'D EXPECT FROM DAVE FRISHBERG".

THE ALL MUSIC GUIDE

"THE TYPE OF TUNES THAT ONLY RANDY NEWMAN IS SUPPOSED TO BE ABLE TO GET AWAY WITH THESE DAYS"

TIME OUT NEW YORK

"GLORIOUS... THIS IS FUN, FUN MUSIC THAT ARRIVES AS DRIFTING FAIRY DUST, BUT PROVES ITSELF THROUGH PEERLESS INSTRUMENTAL WORK".

THE HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

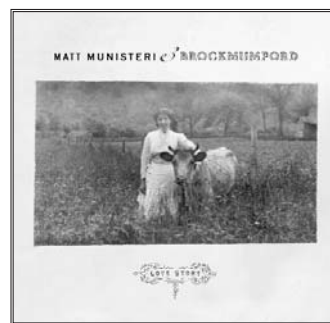

"A PRESENT DAY IRONIST WITH A PREWAR (FIRST WORLD WAR THAT IS) HEART".

THE NEW YORKER

LOVE STORY is the debut CD by guitarist/vocalist/songwriter MATT MUNISTERI and his time-warped band BROCK MUMFORD. Formerly the guitarist, songwriter and music director of The Flying Neutrinos, Munisteri's songs were featured on the band's 2000 release The Hotel Child (scans of 12,000 and counting). Currently a valued and in-demand NYC guitar-slinger, he has recruited some of his favorite musicians and created a world that is at once both familiar and completely new - a world where contemporary and compelling songs are fueled by the infectious beat and improvisations of hot jazz and Parisian murette. With blazing chops, and literate humor, Brock Mumford resists the easy retreat to retro cliché, haphazard ironic pastiche, or faux-folksy hokum. In doing so, their music serves to evoke the quiet dignity that rich harmonies and poignant lyricism once held in American popular song.
